FOREST LODGE,

Honnedaga Lake.

MRS. AUGUSTA V. SCHENCK, Manager.

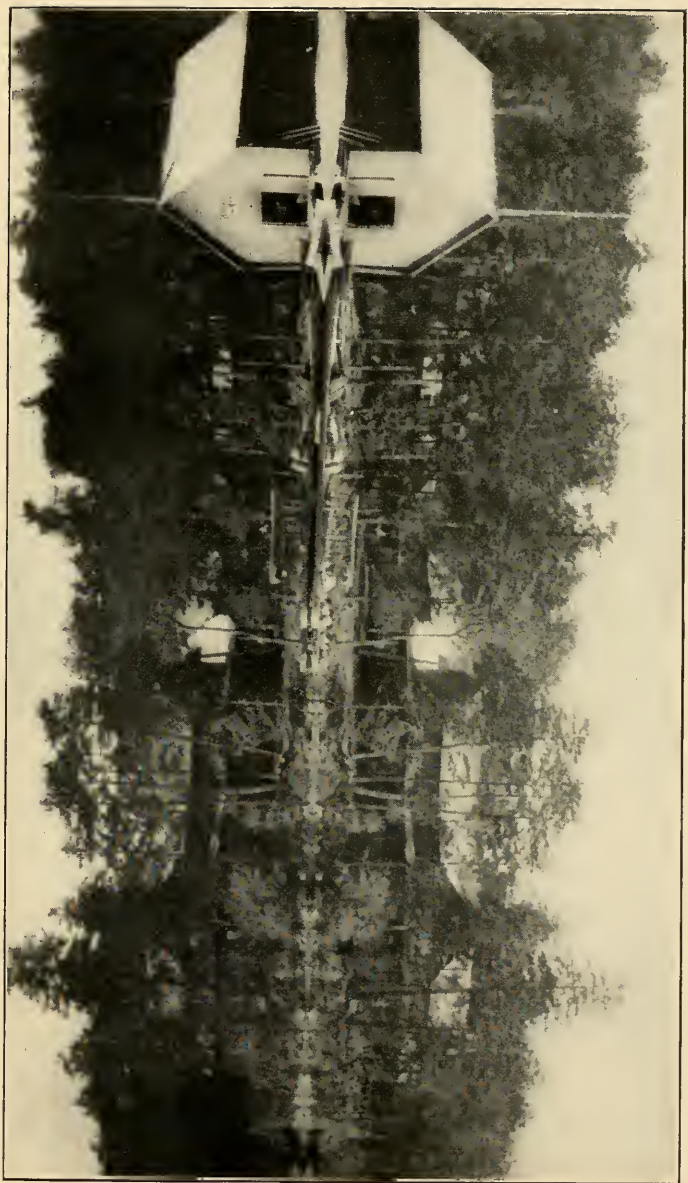

Post Office Address :
Lake Honnedaga, Herkimer Co., N. Y.

The Club has again secured the services of Mrs. Augusta Schenck as Manager, who has had wide experience as house-keeper and manager at Mountain Lodge and other Adirondack resorts, and the Trustees have no doubt that this Lodge, under her management, will be well cared for and everything will be done towards the comfort of members and guests.

It is to be hoped that the patronage of the Lodge this year by members and guests will be greater than ever, for with many improvements so far made and with outlying camps in excellent condition, a pleasant sojourn can be promised visitors.

The railroad stations for Forest Lodge are Forestport, on the Adirondack and St. Lawrence division of the New York Central R. R., and Alder Creek, on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg R. R., under control of the New York Central R. R. (For particulars relating to railroad service, see latest time tables.)

Mr. George W. Crandall, who now carries the Honnedaga and North Lake mail, runs a stage daily (except on Sundays), which conveys passengers to the head of Honnedaga Lake; this stage leaves Forestport on arrival of morning train. The fare from Forestport to Honnedaga Lake is $2.00, and from Alder Creek $2.25 for each person over ten years of age, including ordinary hand baggage. Children under the age of ten years are conveyed free; over ten years of age, full fare will be charged. Trunks—up to 100 pounds, from Forestport, 50 cents each; from Alder Creek, 75 cents each.. Over 100 pounds at the rate of 50 cents per 100 pounds from Forestport and at the rate of 75 cents per 100 pounds from Alder Creek. General freight and expressage rates—10 pounds, 10 cents; 10 pounds to 50 pounds, 25 cents;

"FOREST LODGE."

50 pounds to 100 pounds, 50 cents; over 100 pounds, at the rate of 50 cents per 100 pounds. Bringing in boats on wagon, $4.00 to $6.00, according to size. $7.00 for wagon load of freight up to 2,000 pounds.

PRIVATE CONVEYANCES.

Mr. Crandall will furnish private conveyances for all trains. From Forestport to Honnedaga Lake: One person, $5.00. Two persons, $6.00. Three persons, $7.00. Four persons, $2.00 each, $8.00.

From Alder Creek to Honnedaga Lake: One person, $6.00. Two persons, $7.00. Three persons, $8.00. Four persons, $2.25 each, $9.00.

The foregoing rates include hand baggage and one trunk up to 100 pounds in weight for each passenger, provided Mr. Crandall and the passenger agree to the trunk's going on the same conveyance; otherwise at the usual rate.

Notify Mr. George W. Crandall (P. O. Address: Forestport, N. Y.) by mail or telegraph, a few days in advance of arrival.

Always notify the Manager of Forest Lodge, Honnedaga, Herkimer County, N. Y., two or three days in advance, stating whether guide will be required. Also telephone from North Lake or Forestport so that launch will be waiting arrival of guests at head of Lake.

Hotel accommodations may be had at the Forestport House or Hotel O'Connor, Forestport, N. Y.

From the head of Honnedaga Lake transportation is made to Forest Lodge (five miles) by the Club launch, regular trips 50 cents per passenger, including hand baggage. Twenty-five cents for guides, workmen and children under twelve years of age. Members, guests or children staying at the Lodge or a private camp who desire to meet friends or accompany those departing may make the regular trip at twenty-five cents per person, but not to the exclusion of regular passengers. Trunks 25 cents each.

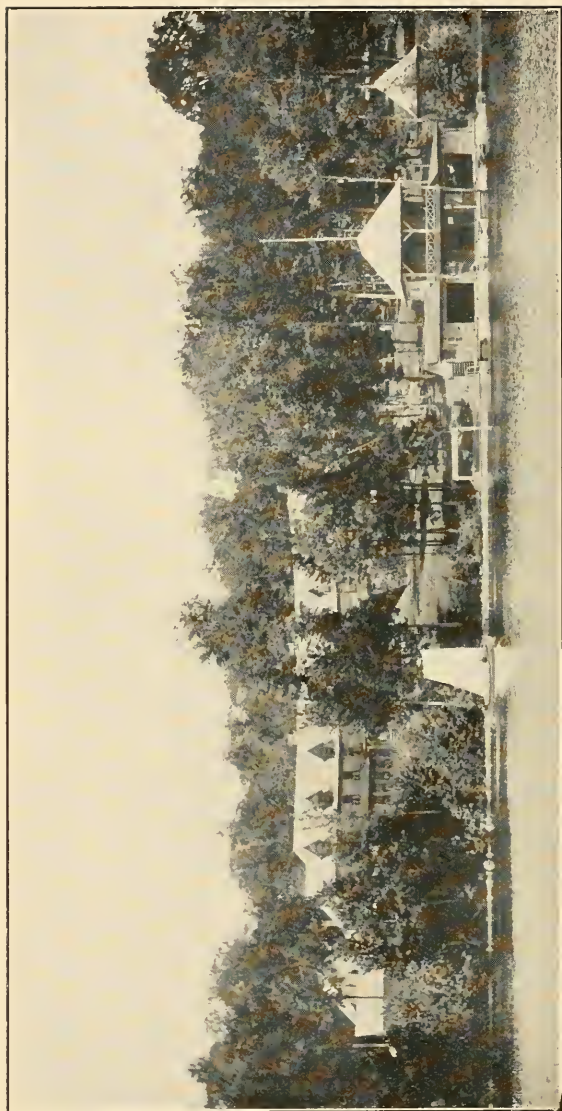

The rates at Forest Lodge are as follows:

BISBY LODGE,

First Bisby Lake.

W. S. WEEDEN, Manager.

Post Office Address :
BISBY, via McKeever, N. Y.

The railroad station for Bisby Lodge is McKeever on the Adirondack and St. Lawrence division of the New York Central R. R. (For particulars relating to railroad service, see latest time tables.)

Leave the railroad cars at McKeever. The Club has the exclusive right for teaming between McKeever and Wolf Lake. It keeps only two teams with buckboards in regular service, and engagements should always be made beforehand with W. S. Weedon, Manager, at Bisby Lodge, via McKeever, N. Y. If more passengers than can be taken on the two buckboards come at the same time, those who have engaged passage first have the preference and others must wait for a second trip. The passenger rate includes reasonable baggage and is $1.50 for each person. From Wolf Lake to Woodhull Landing transportation is made by Club Launch, transportation charge including baggage hauled to Bisby Lodge, is $1.00 for each person. The buckboard charge from Woodhull Landing to Bisby Lodge is 50 cents for each person. The charge is the same per person, whether one or more passengers are carried. ## TRAINS.

INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS AND GUESTS IN REFERENCE TO RAILROAD
TRANSPORTATION TO THE DIFFERENT CLUBHOUSES.

The nearest railroad to our Clubhouses is the Adirondack and St. Lawrence branch of the New York Central. This branch runs from Utica to Forestport, McKeever, Fulton Chain and further north.

"Forest Lodge" is situated about twenty miles from Forestport railroad station, and Forestport village (about a mile west of the station) is about two miles east of Alder Creek, a station on The Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad, which is under the control of the New York Central Railroad.

"Bisby Lodge" is about nine miles from McKeever railroad station.

"Mountain Lodge" is five miles from Fulton Chain. In the summer there is a small branch railroad running from Fulton Chain to Old Forge, Old Forge being distant about three miles from "Mountain Lodge."

Summer time tables of the New York Central Railroad will give full particulars of the schedule of trains to and from these different railroad stations.

Connection can be made at Albany with the Hudson River boats.

According to the present time tables members and guests can take the 11.20 p. m. N. Y. Central train No. 59 from New York to Remsen over the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R., reaching Remsen 7.25 a. m. the following morning, and leaving there at 8.20 a. m. on train No. 61, via Mohawk and Malone, for Forestport, McKeever and Fulton Chain, having time for breakfast in Remsen before the 8.20 a. m. train leaves. This train on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R., after leaving Remsen, runs directly to Alder Creek about two miles distant from Forestport.

There was also a night train going south last summer which members could take from McKeever or Forestport, leaving earlier in the evening than the regular train, but members taking this train from those stations would have to reach New York by way of the West Shore road, arriving at New York City the following morning. By taking this train a long wait until the early hours of the morning at the McKeever and Forestport railroad stations was avoided.

In summer, members and guests can also take the "Empire State" express from New York City, leaving at 8.30 a. m., and change at Utica, connecting with the slower train leaving New York before the "Empire State" express, giving them time for luncheon or dinner at Utica before the Adirondack and St. Lawrence branch train leaves Utica for Forestport, McKeever and Fulton Chain.

It is not expected that this summer the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. will run connection from the "Second Empire," which leaves the Grand Central station in New York City at 12.40 p. m., and this being the case, it will not be possible for members to use the "Second Empire" to make close connection at Utica.

ANNUAL REPORT.

In accordance with the requirements of the Constitution, the Board of Trustees respectfully submits, through its President, its Annual Report for the Club year, ending February 4, 1908.

Since the last Annual Meeting of the Club on February 5, 1907, fifteen members have resigned and sixteen new members have been elected to membership, the membership standing at the present time at 296, owning 370 shares, and 130 shares still remain in the Club's Treasury.

The Club during the past year has lost by death two members; one, Dr. Abram G. Brower of Utica, N. Y., a member since 1893. Dr. Brower was an active member of the Club, having served on the Committee on Sanitary Regulations and Buildings from 1900 to 1906. He had a commodious and delightfully located camp on Bisby Lake. The other, Mr. James Chambers, died at his home in Morristown, N. J., on March 2, 1908, who, with his brother, Mr. John A. Chambers, owned a very attractive camp at Little Moose Lake but owing to a serious illness, covering two or more years, Mr. Chambers had been unable to occupy and enjoy the camp, to which he was very much attached. He joined the Club in 1901.

REPORT OF TRUSTEE FOR FOREST LODGE.

The season of 1907 at Forest Lodge was the most popular in its history, and was thoroughly enjoyed by visiting members and their guests. The Clubhouse was crowded to capacity during August, and well patronized in other months. The various outlying Camps were occupied constantly by fishing and hunting parties, who found the trails through the woods in good condition, and boats on all the lakes and streams. Mr. Ernest T. Carter, who resigned as Trustee-in-Charge last spring, had given much attention to these outlying Camps, and the result has abundantly justified his efforts.

The Club is also indebted to Mr. Carter for many permanent improvements made in and around Forest Lodge. They have added greatly to the general comfort and pleasure. Visitors to the Lodge expressed entire satisfaction with the management of Mrs. Augusta V. Schenck, who has agreed to continue in her present position. It is due Mrs. Schenck that record should be made in this report of her untiring and ambitious efforts in behalf of Forest Lodge.

It is not possible to state in this report that the road from Forestport to Lake Honnedaga is certain to be greatly improved next summer, but the prospect may be regarded as hopeful. Your counsel, Mr. Arleigh D. Richardson, State Senator Heacock and your present Trustee-in-Charge have been in conference with Superintendent of Public Works Stevens and Deputy Superintendent Mede, both of whom are entirely familiar with existing conditions. These officials recognize the responsibility of the State in the matter. While they will not commit themselves definitely until an investigation can be made by their assistants so as to estimate the cost of reasonable improvement, it is hoped and believed that work will be authorized by the Department before the season opens. [An appropriation of $8,000 has since been made by the State for this purpose.]

Last year, under authorization of your Board of Trustees, one of the worst sections of the road (from North Lake to South Lake) was improved at the expense of the Club, thus putting the last five miles of the road in good condition.

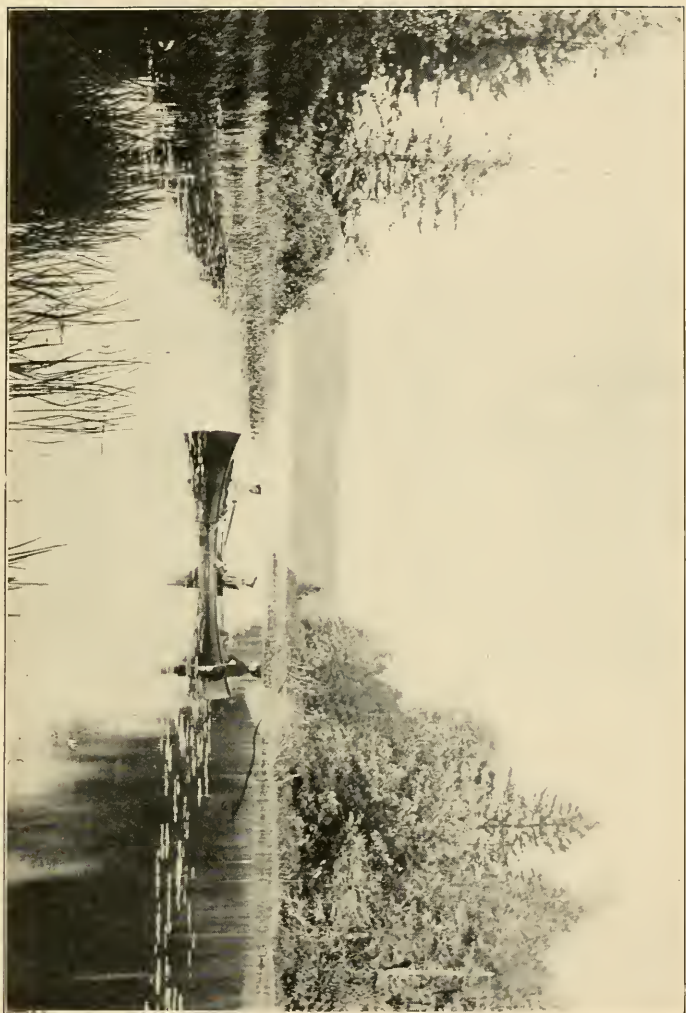

It may interest members to know that a Pierce-Arrow automobile made three round trips over the road from Forestport to Lake Honnedaga last August, carrying seven people on one trip and covering the distance of twenty miles in one hour and thirty-one minutes. If such a trip can be made in that time over what is generally regarded as the worst road in the Adirondacks it is fair to assume that with the improved road now assured us the ride to Honnedaga through the woods will become one of the attractive features of that section of the Club's preserve.

HENRY L. STODDARD,
Trustee-in-Charge.

REPORT OF TRUSTEE FOR BISBEE LODGE.

Bisby was never more beautiful than during the spring, summer and fall of the season of 1907. The primeval forest surrounding the lovely lakes, the delicious, bracing atmosphere, the fine trout fishing and the general good-fellowship were all heartily enjoyed by the favored members and guests who spent their vacation season at this point in our grand Adirondack League Club Preserve. The new camps of Messrs. Bryant and Brewster, together with that of Mr. Bostwick now in process of building, all add to the attractiveness of Bisby shores. Some twenty camps, exclusive of the Lodge, now surround the First Bisby Lake, and prove the ever increasing charm of this highly favored spot.

The Clubhouse, under the excellent direction of Mr. Weeden and his good wife, was patronized and enjoyed by a goodly number of members and guests, but at no time was taxed to its full capacity. Most of the members resident at Bisby keep house at their respective camps, while the smaller number patronize the Clubhouse. This, taken together with the smaller number of transient guests that favor the two other Clubhouses with their patronage, makes it exceedingly difficult for the Bisby manager to make what is known as a good Clubhouse showing. As a matter of fact Bisby showed a loss instead of a gain the past season of $1,000, which is practically all accounted for by less Clubhouse patronage, higher cost of provisions and increased cost of labor. Experience at Bisby has proved that it is exceedingly difficult to provide satisfactory service and entertainment at the Clubhouse below a certain average cost, and that the question of profit or loss for the season is always determined by the amount of patronage the House receives. With the present improved transportation facilities a trip in, to and out from Bisby is a comparative delight, and can now be accomplished in less than two hours each way. Some time, when the Club places an automobile bus on the McKeever to Wolf Lake road, the trip may be made in a little over one hour, but at the present time all old Bisbyites are quite content to leave civilization behind at the railroad station and enjoy the old fashioned buck-board and Club launch ride. A fine spring of living water, probably the largest on the Preserve, has been recently discovered on Coombs Lake Mountain, and if our Board is placed in possession of sufficient funds to warrant such expenditure, its crystalline waters may soon be enjoyed at Bisby Lodge. A fairly liberal policy of judicious expenditure for greatly needed improvements would soon place Bisby, as well as Mountain and Forest Lodges, in condition and position to more satisfactorily cater to and to command a largely increased patronage from both members and guests.

WILLIAM P. HALL,
Trustee-in-Charge.

REPORT OF TRUSTEE FOR MOUNTAIN LODGE.

Little Moose year runs from October 1 to September 30. During the year of 1906 and 1907 a greater number of members and guests stopped at the Clubhouse and cottages than ever before. There were 4,335 days' board recorded at the Clubhouse, of which 1,098 days' board were for occupants of the three cottages erected in 1906. These cottages have proven a complete success and do, without question, relieve the congestion of our overcrowded Clubhouse during July and August.

The May attendance was very slim until after the 15th and the total number of fishermen fell short of last year. However, those who came found fishing most excellent, bringing in good catches.

The nine different departments into which Little Moose management is divided were all closed at the end of the year, each showing a profit. Of these departments Little Moose wishes to call your particular attention to the store and emphasize the fact that it was able to administer to the needs of the campers at better prices than hitherto, and it will do still better for its patrons next year, as the object of the store is to provide all necessary provisions at a cost less than campers can buy outside and have shipped in for. The store did a business of $14,000, of which $6,000 were sales to the campers.

Your particular attention is called to the luxury of having a vegetable garden, and you are asked to note that it was most prolific in supplying both the Clubhouse and campers with fresh vegetables of best quality.

The wooden tennis court was completed last spring and proved a complete success. On it was played the Club tournament, for which Albert C. Bostwick, Esq., presented a silver cup, which was won by Mr. Wesley Castles. This court was in continual use the whole season, and Little Moose wants to thank the members most heartily who contributed to the subscription with which it was built.

Labor Day was made a gala day, in which all the people on the Lake took part in many amusements, and the water sports proved most entertaining and interesting.

Through the careful management and attention of Mr. Studor and his wife everybody was most particularly pleased with their visits to the Clubhouse, and the year proved beyond question the biggest and most successful Little Moose has ever known.

Wood cutting and delivery of the same to the different camps has all been finished, and here let it be known that Mountain Lodge is ready to cut and deliver wood each fall to any camp wanting the same, by applying to Lewis Grant, Superintendent of the Preserve.

Ice cutting and filling of ice houses has been finished, though, owing to the great depth of snow, considerably more labor than usual was necessary.

A. D. SHEPARD, JR.,
Trustee-in-Charge.

LUMBERING.

The Trustees have submitted for your future consideration a report on Township 7 made by Messrs. Chittenden & Patterson, consulting contractors and foresters, of Baltimore, Md., who were most highly recommended to your Board by Mr. Gifford Pinchot, Forester, United States Department of Agriculture, the details of which are very explicitly given in the report.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FORESTRY, ADIRONDACK LEAGUE CLUB.

NEW YORK, February 29th, 1908.

The Committee on Forestry have, during the past year, held meetings in New York and on the Club preserve.

They secured from expert foresters, recommended by Mr. Pinchot of the United States Forestry Commission,

THE THREE CLUB COTTAGES AT LITTLE MOOSE LAKE, TAKEN FROM THE REAR, SHOWING THE LAKE

the admirable report sent to the members during this month, on Township No. 7, which was submitted to the Board of Trustees August 15th, 1907, with a recommendation favoring the lumbering of Township No. 7 under conditions suggested by Mr. Chittenden in said report.

For good and sufficient reasons, after giving the matter careful consideration, the Board of Trustees decided to recommend an increase of the dues as the better plan of financing the Club's affairs and meeting all immediate requirements. This proposition will come up for action at the annual meeting, March 4th, 1908. If this recommendation is not favorably considered the alternative is the adoption of the Forestry Committee's recommendation.

Any one that has carefully considered the Treasurer's report for the year ending February 5, 1907, must realize the necessity of some such action if we are to avoid insolvency.

If we are to continue as a Club, without constantly incurring debts that our income is insufficient to meet, we have either got to increase our dues to an amount equal to our annual expenditures or adopt the suggestion contained in the Chittenden report and lumber Township No. 7.

To those members who do not relish the interference with their pleasure which logging operations necessarily occasion, we would say that the territory we suggest lumbering is rarely visited by members other than a few residents at Honnedaga and their pleasure would not be seriously interfered with.

PRESENT LUMBERING.

The Forestry Committee has on file copies of all the lumber contracts now in force, including those giving right to float logs down South Branch of Moose River, and have endeavored to prevent the contractors and sub-contractors from exceeding the limits of their contracts.

TRAILS.

The outlying camps are in charge of the different Trustee Managers, but the trails to same and between the three Lodges are under the immediate supervision of the superintendent as representing the Forestry Committee. The writer has personal knowledge the work was most carefully attended to last year.

This spring several new trails will be opened up, notably a short cut to Otter Brook Camp from the Little-Moose-Proctor-Camp trail, a crying need to one storm-bound on the long stretch between Lime Kiln Creek and Proctor Camp.

TREE CUTTING WITHIN CLUB LANDS.

The unmethodical method of cutting trees for building purposes or for stove wood in the past has had the attention of the Committee, and rules have been adopted whereby only such timber shall be cut as has the approval of the Committee. Mr. Lewis L. Grant, the club superintendent, who was instructed when he was appointed to inform himself as to the conditions of all parts of the Club tract, especially in reference to timber, has been acting in close touch with your Committee, and has been of invaluable assistance to them. He has familiarized himself with all the tract conditions, including the terms of all lumber contracts, and diligently exacted the faithful performance of the same by the men in charge.

Respectfully,
W. E. LOWE,
Chairman of Forestry Committee.

LOT 6 CASE.

In the case of the redemption by the Club of Lot 6, Township 6 (Adirondack League Club vs. Marquis L. Keyes), sold for taxes in December, 1900, the decision of Justice Andrews in favor of Marquis L. Keyes dismissing the complaint, was reversed by the Appellate Division in November, 1907, granting permission to open the case for trial. The case will be noticed for trial the forepart of April.

NEW HATCHERY.

In regard to the proposed new Hatchery to be built at the outlet of Little Moose Lake, the private subscriptions for the construction of the same have been insufficient to undertake that work and therefore it has been left in abeyance for the time being.

STROEBEL CONTRACT.

At the second adjourned annual meeting on March 5, 1907, pursuant to the call of the President, the Tellers reported that 215 proxies in favor of the contract between the Adirondack League Club and Daniel F. Stroebel for use of floating logs down the South Branch of Moose River had been received and the President declared the contract approved, two-thirds of the Club voting in its favor. On motion, the President and Secretary were instructed to execute and sign the said Stroebel agreement as approved by the members.

NORTH LAKE CAMPS.

In reference to the controversy about the Lindsay-Wendover camps on North Lake, the Trustees decided to take no action in the matter until they had received some definite report about the ownership of that land on which the camps are located. This we hope will be decided this spring.

MORTGAGE.

A mortgage of $70,000 on the Club's lands and property recently held by the Fidelity Trust Company of Buffalo, became due on February 2, 1908, details of which have been fully outlined to the members in an appeal of the Trustees for subscriptions to bonds to be issued by the Club to liquidate said loan. We are much gratified to report that the response to our appeal up to the latter part of January was met by the members to the extent of $50,000, on which date we were offered the entire sum of $70,000 by the Rochester Savings Bank for three years at 6 per cent., and fearing the balance of the bonds might not be taken in time to meet our obligation on February 2, 1908, and in view of the disturbed financial conditions, your Board deemed it wise to accept the loan as offered, since which time subscriptions have been increased to about $60,000, and an offer to advance us such additional amount up to $70,000 by one of our members until an equal amount of bonds should be subscribed for.

HONNEDAGA ROAD.

Through the efforts of our Trustees we have received very favorable consideration from the State Government at Albany to our request for an appropriation for the reconstruction of a part of the road requiring such repairs between Forestport and Honnedaga, covering about eight miles, and hope to obtain a liberal appropriation.

SUPERINTENDENT.

We hope to retain Mr. Lewis L. Grant as Superintendent of the Club for the ensuing year, as his services in that capacity have been most satisfactory.

---

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SANITARY REGULATIONS AND BUILDINGS.

TO MR. WILLIAM P. SMITH,
President Adirondack League Club.

The Chairman of the Committee on Sanitary Regulations and Building submits the following:

Since the last report the plans of three resident camps have been approved. The consistency of these plans with the rules and regulations of the Club was extremely gratifying and shows the spirit that is essential to the well-being of the Club and its members.

During last summer the three resident lakes were visited. The sanitation at Honnedaga was excellent. At Bisby there was some drainage of fluid waste into the lake. This was promptly remedied by the Trustee-in-Charge as soon as he had knowledge of it. There is an increasing need of a more adequate water supply for Bisby, and this subject will have careful consideration during the coming year.

Sooner or later a more extensive supply will have to be provided for Little Moose as well, though the need is not as urgent as at Bisby.

Very respectfully,

March 3, 1908.

N. R. NORTON.

REPORT OF FISH AND GAME COMMITTEE.

As it was decided not to operate the hatchery, your Chairman was authorized to purchase 10,000 brook trout and 3,000 lake trout fingerlings for stocking Little Moose and Panther Lakes. They were received October 24th, and immediately distributed. There were but three dead fish in shipment; balance were strong and vigorous; were distributed carefully, putting but a few at any place. This stocking should produce good results, as the fish were strong and apparently able to care for themselves. On October 2d a communication from Mr. Aldrich said several Bisby members had subscribed $150 for purchase of speckled trout fingerlings. With this sum 5,000 fish were bought and delivered at Bisby November 6th. There were forty-eight dead fish, as the journey from McKeever to Bisby was a trying one; the balance of shipment were in excellent condition and rapidly distributed, 2,600 in First and Second Sylvan Ponds and Combs

Lake, 1,600 in Third Bisby and 800 in Chambers Lake. A screen was securely placed in outlet of Sylvan Ponds and notices put at each pond and at Combs Lake, requesting members to use a fly only for fishing in these waters. If members will live up to this rule those who best know conditions there predict that fishing will greatly improve and more real pleasure will be had by taking game fish in a sportsmanlike manner, by fly casting, than by the various methods heretofore used, that merely had in view the killing of trout, entirely eliminating any idea of sport from the point of view of a fly fisherman.

The distributon of fry from the hatchery, spring of 1907, was as follows:

Sylvan Ponds.....	50,000
Combs Lake and outlet.....	50,000
Nameless Creek.....	20,000

LIST OF TREES OCCURRING OR LIKELY TO OCCUR ON THE CLUB PRESERVE.

A.—CONIFERS OR CONE BEARERS.

These, with one exception, the larch, are evergreen, their fruit in cones composed of scales attached to a spindle, the winged seeds lying under the scales.

SPRUCES.

Recognized by their sharp-pointed leaves or needles setting all around the twigs or shoots and by their pendulous cones, which, when they fall, remain entire.

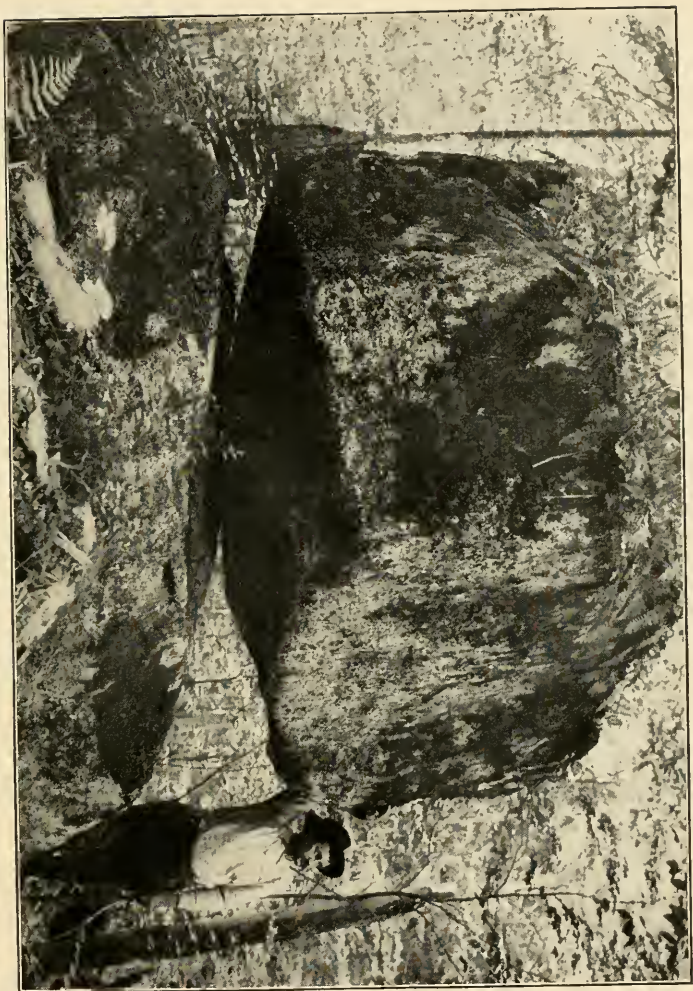

There are three species, not easily distinguished, the first mentioned being the most common:

1. Red Spruce (Picea rubra or rubens). The real lumber tree. Bark breaking into small, roundish, reddish-brown plates.

2. Black Spruce (Picea Mariana or nigra), also called Double or Swamp Spruce, found mostly in swamps. A smaller, slender tree, recognized by its dark bluish-green, short needles, rather blunt at the apex and appressed to the twig, and by its small, roundish cones, smaller than those of Red Spruce. Bark dark, scaly and flaky.

3. White Spruce (Picea alba or Canadensis), also called Cat Spruce or Skunk Spruce on account of the disagreeable smell it emits when bruised; readily recognized also by the elongated cylindrical cones; leaves sharp and usually longer than those of the other two spruces. Bark light-colored plates.

4. Balsam Fir (Abies balsamea), largely found in swamps, but also on uplands to the mountain tops. Recognized by the flat, blunt leaves, white underneath, arranged more or less in two ranks, aromatic; and by the upright, cylindrical cones, the scales falling away and leaving the spindles standing like Christmas candles. Crown sharply conical on full-grown trees. Bark smooth, whitish-gray.

5. Hemlock (Tsuga Canadensis). Foliage similar to balsam but shorter and not aromatic. Cones very small, pendulous, falling, like spruce, entire. Bark dark brown, deeply ridged in old trees.

PINES.

Recognized by having two or more long leaves or needles bunched in a sheath. Cones pendulous and much larger in our species than those of other conifers.

6. White Pine (Pinus Strobus), readily recognized by having five long, whitish, slender needles in a sheath; long, cylindrical cones with smooth scales; grayish, smooth bark in young; dark, more or less ridgy bark in old trees. Found especially along water courses and ponds.

7. Red or Norway Pine (Pinus resinosa), not found in Norway. Has three long, stiff, sharp-pointed, pale green needles in a sheath; cones with thick scales and stout prickles. Bark reddish-brown. Found in poor, sandy and gravelly soils, near water and on openings. Less common than White Pine.

8. White Cedar (Thuja occidentalis), the well-known Arborvitae; the very short, sharp-pointed needles closely adherent, overlapping each other and entirely enclosing the branchlet, forming flat sprays; the small conelets consist of only a few scales. Bark in young trees smooth reddish-gray; in old trees ridgy and flaky, gray with red-brown tinge; fibrous. In swamps and near water.

9. Tamarack or American Larch (Larix Americana or laricina). The one conifer which loses its leaves in winter, when it can be readily recognized by the little "buttons" on all twigs, the bases or dwarf branchlets on which the foliage sat; the latter in rosettes or bunches. The small cones resemble the smallest spruce cones, but stand erect. Mostly in open, swampy ground.

B.—BROAD LEAF OR DECIDUOUS TREES.

These lose their foliage in winter, when they can still be recognized by the buds, bark and arrangement of twigs.

MAPLES.

These are the most common deciduous species in the Adirondacks, especially the first mentioned. Recognized by the much indented foliage and the branch arrangement, which is in opposites. Fruit consisting of two winged seeds, called keys.

10. Sugar or Rock Maple (Acer saccharum or barbatum or saccharinum). Leaves usually broader than long, with smooth margin and usually five smoothly-rounded, wavy indentations and drawn-out, blunt teeth, dark green above, slightly paler below. Sharp-pointed, reddish-brown winter buds. Bark gray, very smooth and close in young trees; fissured in long, thick plates in old; sometimes shaggy. A large tree.

A variety, the Black Maple (var. nigrum), is recognized by the larger, darker, drooping foliage.

11. Red or Swamp Maple (Acer rubrum), a medium-sized tree found mostly in lowlands and swamps, but also on rocky hillsides. Foliage dark green above, light colored to sometimes white and more or less hairy beneath; usually only three lobes with sharp indentations and margin more or less evenly toothed. Buds dark-reddish and young shoots often reddish. Bark in young trees much like Sugar Maple, in old often in long flakes; recognized by the close, dark gray bark of younger branches.

12. White or Silver Maple (Acer saccharinum or dasycarpum). A medium-sized, rather rare tree, recognized by the very much and sharply cut leaves with many uneven teeth on margin, usually five-lobed, pale green above and whitish to silver-white beneath. Slender buds and conspicuous flowers. Branches often gracefully pendulous. Bark in older trees separating into thin, loose scales; young shoots chestnut colored and young branches tighter than the preceding. Found here and there through the woods, especially near streams, but not in swamps.

13. Striped Maple, Moosewood or Whistlewood (Acer Pennsylvanicum). A handsome, small tree found throughout the woods, especially in dark places, readily recognized by the green and darkish-striped bark and the very large, rather flabby, dark green foliage and the graceful pendants of flowers and fruit clusters.

14. Mountain Maple (Acer spicatum). A small, gray-barked tree or mostly shrub found in open places through the woods, with smaller foliage and fruit than all the other maples, the latter in pendants.

BIRCHES.

Next to the maples in frequency, especially the first mentioned. Recognized by the slender, brush-like or pendulous branchlets, the silvery to white bark and entire, toothed leaves; sharp-pointed, irregularly placed buds, small cone-like fruit, and male flowers in catkins.

15. Yellow Birch (Betula lutea). A large tree, common through the woods, with silvery-gray bark, at least in younger trees and branches, peeling off in fine, silky layers. Leaves oblong, coarsely and doubly toothed.

Although lumbermen talk of Cherry Birch, the true Cherry Birch (B. lenta) does not occur in this part of the Adirondacks, the name referring to reddish wood of some Yellow Birch trees.

16. Paper or Canoe Birch (Betula papyrifera). A medium-sized tree usually found in special localities, and mainly on mountain slopes. Distinguished from the next, which is, like this, a white-barked tree, by the shape of the foliage (oval or ovate) and the stouter branching; also by the ovate buds.

17. White or Gray Birch (Betula populifolia). A small, short-lived tree with white bark and triangular shaped leaves, slender branchlets often drooping. Found mostly in open places and burnt lands.

18. American Beech (Fagus ferruginea or Americana). A large tree, next in frequency to Sugar Maple and Yellow Birch.

Recognized by the smooth, unfissured, gray bark and leathery finely and regularly-toothed foliage. In winter the long, sharp-pointed buds may assist in recognizing it.

19. American or White Elm (Ulmus Americana). A very large tree found sporadically, recognized by the ash-gray, firm, ridgy bark and by the habit of continuous forking; i. e., dividing into two equal branches, with reddish-brown branchlets and ovate brown buds. Leaves at base very uneven, oval, doubly toothed. Fruit a samara; seed all surrounded by the wing.

If the Slippery Elm (Ulmus fulva) is found, it can be recognized by the dark brown, old bark, the slimy inner bark on peeling, and the very much larger leaves, hairy above and woolly beneath.

ASHES.

These, like the maples, have their leaves and branchlets opposite, but they have compound leaves, usually seven leaflets making the leaf, and in winter are recognized by their thick, short, triangular or pyramidal buds, and the short, very little diversified branching; also by the ridgy bark.

20. White Ash (Fraxinus Americana). A large tree found only sporadically, with ovate leaflets, their margins almost without teeth. Bark easily distinguished by the very prominent, uniform and firm ridges, of light gray color. The buds are a rusty brown.

21. Black Ash or Swamp Ash (Fraxinus nigra or sambucifolia). Usually a somewhat smaller tree than the former, mostly in swamps. Easily distinguished by the foliage, the leaflets having no stalks, being much longer than those of the former and regularly toothed. Buds black or nearly so. Bark ash-gray, often separating into fine flakes.

If the Red Ash (Fraxinus Pennsylvanica) should be found, the smaller reddish-brown buds, the greenish-gray, somewhat velvety branchlets and the downy leafstalks will distinguish it.

WICKS' CAMP—2ND STILL, WATER OF WEST CANADA CREEK

22. Basswood or Linden (Tilia Americana). This large tree is found in few localities of the Adirondacks, but possibly on the Club Preserve. Its large, broad, roundish leaves with heart-shaped base, its peculiar pea-shaped fruit pending from a rib of a leaf-bract, its red, thick buds on short branchlets curved back and its dark gray, smooth-looking, yet fissured bark, distinguish it.

23. Black Cherry (Prunus serotina). This tall, relatively slender tree is found here and there in single individuals. Its elliptical, finely-toothed, firm leaves are glossy above and paler below, by which it is distinguished from other cherries.

In old trees the irregular, thick, blackish scales of the bark and the long branchlets bole with a small, thin crown help to recognize it; in young trees, the bitter taste of the bark, reddish-brown, with small oblong raised dots.

24. Pin Cherry or Bird Cherry or Wild Red Cherry (Prunus Pennsylvanica). A small, slender tree in openings and burns. Foliage light green and shiny on both sides.

If the Choke Cherry (Prunus Virginiana or demissa) should be found, the paler foliage with roundish or slightly heart-shaped base will distinguish it.

25. Large-toothed Aspen (Populus grandidentata). Only in openings and burns; a small tree with greenish-gray bark and oval, widely-toothed leaves.

26. Quaking Aspen (Populus tremuloides). Found usually together with the other; with a greenish-white to white bark; leaves similar in outline to the former, but finely toothed.

If the Balm of Gilead or Balsam Poplar (Populus balsamifera) should be found, its very sticky, fragrant brown, large buds and its lance-shaped, tapering leaves suffice to distinguish it.

27. Shadbush or June Berry (Amelanchier Canadensis) is a shrub or small tree, whose white, conspicuous clusters of apple-blossom-like flowers enliven the early spring before leaves are out. Its small, oblong, finely-toothed leaves with pointed apex suggest a delicate roseleaf. Its bluish-black, plum-like fruit is edible.

28. Mountain Ash (Sorbus or Pyrus Americana). A small tree found here and there, well known for its bright clusters of yellowish-red fruit, has compound leaves, the 11-19 leaflets oblong, finely and sharply toothed, the buds peculiarly shaped, like a scythe. Smooth, gray bark.

29. Ironwood or Hop Hornbeam (Ostrya Virginiana). A small tree found sporadically through the woods. Its name comes from the fruit, which resembles hops. Its foliage somewhat like Yellow Birch, but smaller and more elongated. Its bark finely shaggy, dark. Prized for its toughness.

30. Hornbeam, Blue Beech, Ironwood (Carpinus Caroliniana) may occur. A small tree like the former, with similar foliage, but entirely different fruit, conspicuous by the leaf-like three-lobed bract in which the nutlets are inserted. The bark is gray and smooth, like beech, to which the tree otherwise has resemblance.

In addition to these, some Tree Willows are to be found. In other parts of the Adirondacks the Red Oak (Quercus rubra) and the Red Cedar (Juniperus Virginiana) occur, but probably not on the Club property.

Every member owning more than one membership share shall, in addition to annual dues, be assessed $10 per annum for each additional share so held, to cover his or her proportionate amount of taxes, insurance and interest on each such share. Such assessments to be payable in two equal payments semi-annually on April 1st and August 1st in each year. #### PENALTIES.

VII. All penalties, whether forfeiture of membership rights or any minor penalties, prescribed by this Constitution, are so prescribed and shall be enforced solely for the protection of the property, interests and welfare of the Club and its members, or in furtherance of State Laws and regulations relating to hunting, fishing and forestry. The offenses subject to such penalties are as follows: (1) Any violation of this Constitution or of the By-Laws or rules of the Club. 2. The Board may, in its discretion, impose a penalty (for any one of the enumerated offenses except the failure to pay annual dues) of a fine not exceeding $50, or suspend the member from all membership privileges for a period not exceeding one year, or decree forfeiture of all membership rights, provided that the offense be shown to have been committed upon or within the domain of the Club.

3. All dues, fees, fines and charges of every nature due to the Club from any member shall be a lien upon his share or shares in the Club. Such charges may be collected as a debt in the manner provided by law, and no transfer of said share or shares shall be valid until all such charges have been paid in full with interest. When the indebtedness of the member shall amount to $200, the Club may, on ten days' notice, sell the share or shares of such member at auction, and, after paying all liens and charges against the same, pay over the balance to such member, his legal representatives or assigns; but no more shares shall thus be sold than are necessary to pay such liens and charges.

4. No decree of forfeiture of membership rights shall take effect until affirmed by the written approval of at least three-fourths of the entire Board, but, when so affirmed, the membership and membership rights shall thereupon cease and determine, and all rights of occupancy shall revert to the Club; the person thus forfeiting membership shall be thenceforth treated as a trespasser, and any structures or personal property not removed by him within sixty days after written notice to him shall thereupon become the property of the Club.

(As amended February 5, 1907.)

2. The election of Trustees shall be by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The presiding officer shall appoint two Inspectors of Election, who shall receive and canvass the ballots and certify the results to the Secretary.

3. In the election of Trustees and in all other matters decided by the votes of members, each member shall be entitled to one vote, irrespective of the number of shares owned by him or her, and a plurality of all the votes cast shall be required for the election of any member of the Board.

4. In case the certificate of the Inspector shall show that all the vacancies in the Board have not been filled, the meeting shall be adjourned for two weeks, at which adjourned meeting the election to fill vacancies shall proceed as hereinbefore provided.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

IX. The Board of Trustees shall have power and it shall be their duty: (1) Soon after the adjournment of the Annual Meeting of the Club, to elect (by majority vote) from their own number, a President, a Vice-President, and from their own number or from the Club, a Treasurer and a Secretary, all of which officers shall hold office for the period of one year or until their successors are elected by the Board. (As amended February 5, 1907.)

2. To fill any vacancy among the members of the Board, or the officers of the Club, by vote of the majority present at a meeting of the Board, provided that the notice of such meeting shall have contained a statement of the vacancy and that the same is to be filled at the said meeting, and provided further that the person so appointed shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting of the Club or until his successor is elected by the Club.

3. To appoint annually, with instructions for their guidance, the following Standing Committees: A Committee on Membership, to consist of three members of the Board; an Executive Committee, to consist of six members of the Board, in addition to the President and Vice-President of the Club, who shall be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee. Also Standing Committees on (1) Fish and Game, on (2) Sanitary Regulations and Building, and on (3) Forestry. The Chairman of each of the last three Committees shall be a member of the Board. It shall also have power to appoint annually an Attorney and a Chief Forester for the Club, and to regulate the compensation for their respective services. It shall also have power to appoint from time to time such special committees, from its own membership or from the Club, as it may deem necessary or useful in conducting the affairs of the Club. It shall also have power to appoint a delegate or delegates to represent the Club before any legislative body or for the purpose of conferring with any other association or body respecting any matter in which this Club may be concerned. It shall also have power to employ such other agents and servants as it may deem useful for the objects of the Club, and to fix their compensation. (As amended February 5, 1907.)

All persons appointed under the provisions of this paragraph shall hold their appointments subject to revocation by the Board, which may revoke any of such appointments and fill vacancies as often and in such manner as it may deem to be for the best interests of the Club.

4. To make and amend By-Laws for the Club, not inconsistent with this Constitution.

5. To make rules for the conduct of the members of the Club, their use of Club property, and defining and limiting the hunting and fishing privileges of the members.

At North Lake this "law" is retained as the absolute rule of this Club; and any guide or member who shall neglect to observe this rule at this crossing shall be subject to a fine of $5.00 for each offense; and the same shall be charged against the offending member or the guide, and collected by the Manager, unless excused by the Executive Committee for good cause shown.

4. Guest tickets signed by the President may be obtained from the Secretary, but members applying for them must furnish the guest's name and date of visit. The Secretary is not allowed to furnish blank tickets.

5. The guest must register at one of the Club Houses on his arrival and present his guest card to the Manager, who will record the number, name of guest and inviting member, and date of presentation. He or she will then countersign the same and return to holder. This rule must be enforced.

Every resident member of the State will have to pay for a resident license the sum of $1.00, and ten cents for Clerk's fees.

out permission first being obtained from the Board of Trustees or Executive Committee.

FISH AND GAME RECORDS.

2. Persons under twenty-one years of age and guests of members shall not be allowed to hunt on the Preserve unless accompanied by a qualified Guide.

3. The Lodge Manager shall have charge of the allotment of hunting territory on the Preserve to members and guests during the hunting season, under the direction of the Trustee in charge and the resident Fish and Game Committee.

4. Cards will be furnished all camp owners, to be filled out weekly, showing amount of fish and game killed by the member or his guest. Members stopping at the Club House must report promptly to the Manager all fish and game killed by them and their guests.

5. Hunting and fishing rights are defined by the By-Laws (Art. II, Sec. 3), as privileges granted by the Club to its individual members, without reference to the number of membership shares held by such members.

6. Hunting and fishing on the first day of the week constitutes a misdemeanor under the laws of the State of New York. (Penal Code, Sec. 265.) Members and Guests will respect this law.

FIRE-WOOD.

The stumpage charges for fire-wood taken from Club lands for use by cottagers or campers shall be for,—

STOVE-WOOD 15 inches, or less, in length, 20 cents per cord.

STOVE-WOOD 15 to 20 inches in length, 25 cents per cord.

FIRE-PLACE WOOD 3½ feet, or less, in length, 25 cents per cord.

It is understood that fire-place wood will be taken from the parts of the tree not suitable for stove-wood, and will include the limbs down to 2 inches in diameter.

No cutting of wood on Club lands is permitted without permission first had from the Trustee in charge, or the Executive Committee.

RUSTIC RAILINGS AND DECORATIONS.

No spruce tree of less than 6 inches diameter at the butt shall be cut on the Club Preserve.

CAMP SITES AND STRUCTURES.

1. Cottages and camp sites are private property, held subject to restrictions involving the interest of other members.

2. Tree cutting is subject to the approval or disapproval of the Trustees. No clearing or cutting of trees on the lake front is permitted without the approval of the Trustee being first had. This rule is mandatory and is a part of the restricted ownership of Club lots. The shore scenery belongs to all members, and any cutting of trees should be carefully considered with respect to the interest and enjoyment of all. For the purpose of making this important rule effective, lot owners are notified to report to and consult with the Trustee in charge before cutting any trees or making any shore improvements.

3. No fences are permitted.

4. Plans of all structures must be approved by the Trustees and the Committee on Sanitary Regulations and Building before construction. No camp or other structure, excepting tents, shall be erected on land owned or controlled by the Club, without previous authorization by the Trustees or the Executive Committee, and every camp or structure so authorized to be built, shall at all times be the exclusive property of the Club, and as such, be under the control of the Trustees.

5. Members having camps on Honnedaga Lake who desire the Club Launch to deliver mail or stop for any purpose at their respective camp sites, must provide a permanent or floating dock, so located with respect to navigation that landings can be made without necessitating any change in the general direction of the Launch course.

6. The disposal of waste must be strictly in accordance with the following "Sanitary Regulations."

SANITARY REGULATIONS.

GENERAL RULES.

The location of all camps and particularly of all out-buildings, closets, cesspools, are controlled by the Club, through its Sanitary and Building Committee. Submitted plans must show in detail all house plumbing location of drains, cesspools and earth closets; methods of sewage disposal and the water supply. Such plans having been approved by the Sanitary and Building Committee, the finished work will be inspected and passed upon by the Club's representative appointed for the purpose.

WATER SUPPLY.

The lakes and streams are important sources of potable water, and the Club, therefore, must enforce stringent regulations against the pollution of the same, in any manner, direct or indirect. Even springs and streams on the lots of members must, for sanitary reasons, remain under the Club's control.

EARTH CLOSETS.

The ordinary privy and privy vault or pit are entirely prohibited. Any closet, except of the improved earth type, or any similar receptacle, must not be placed within 50 feet of lakes, streams or springs, and would be better at a distance of 100 feet. Water-tight receptacles of a form to be readily handled and cleaned must be so arranged as to receive all matters without soiling surrounding woodwork, ground, etc. For house use the more elaborate earth closet, such as the one patented by Heap and sold by Sargent, may be used. For general use a simple structure with large galvanized pails will be found most convenient and satisfactory. A good, tight box is admissible, but it is apt to become offensive unless kept well filled with ashes and duff, and the front protected with slate or tin to prevent saturation. Under the usual conditions found on the Club tract, fine dry wood ashes or duff are the most natural and satisfactory absorbents for use in the closets. The inoffensive condition of closets depends simply on the use of a sufficient quantity of such material in a fine, dry state, and a frequent emptying of pails and receptacles. The ashes or duff should be well dried, screened and stored in boxes or barrels under cover readily accessible to the one in charge of the closets. Each closet should be provided with a box of ashes, etc., with a shovel. The pail contents should be frequently removed and burned on the fire pile. The use of ashes or dry duff instead of earth, lime, etc., will permit of this being done.

LIQUID WASTES.

Modern plumbing fixtures with water-carried sewage should be discouraged, as greatly complicating the problem of sewage disposal. The kitchen sink, hand basin and bath may waste into a pail or a barrel on wheels, and so avoid the necessity for a cesspool. A cesspool means the larger use of water and the retention of wastes till they become offensive and dangerous, and the difficulty of finding simple and safe methods of their disposal results. When it is desired to put in more elaborate plumbing the owner must submit for approval a complete and satisfactory system for sewage disposal. If the conditions of the site in question be considered not feasible, then the more simple method will be required.

Cesspools, if permitted within 250 feet (and under no conditions to be nearer than 50 feet of any lake or water course) must be water-tight and frequently pumped out and contents distributed over the surface back of the 250 foot limit, when the contour of surface permits, care being taken to prevent the saturation of any one spot, as little purification then takes place. The liquid may be distributed through a hose by hand-pump, on two or more suitable places in the woods, prepared by removing the leaf mold and duff and roughly leveling the surface. House waste, chamber slops and wash water must be disposed of while fresh by distributing them over as large an area of open sunny ground as may be practicable, at least 200 feet back from the lake, if the shores permit, and they must not be thrown continuously on the same spot. The disposal of these liquid wastes on the fire pile is not satisfactory, as the ground about the fire becomes saturated and the water runs away unpurified.

The disposal of waste from cottages or camps built at foot of steep rises of high hills or mountains is a problem for the Sanitary Engineer to solve. In every such case his services should be secured.

FIRE PILES.

The use of the fire pile, or the modern incinerator, for the destruction of all refuse must be strictly enforced. The fire pile should be established at least 100 feet distant from any lake or stream when practicable. It should be roughly built of stones, the duff, etc., removed and the earth banked to prevent spread of fire, and the washing away of unconsumed and unpurified matter. The incinerator may be placed where most convenient.

GARBAGE AND REFUSE.

In place of the "fire pile," a small furnace or crematory, like or similar to that in use by the State Militia, may be used to advantage.

Kitchen garbage and refuse of all kinds should be burned on the fire pile while fresh, and not thrown on the pile and allowed to remain till sour and offensive. Care in burning is necessary to prevent a nuisance from odors and smoke, and a large, hot fire should be kept up till all is consumed.
